>> WHAT WE LIKE:

Cusco (3,400m) this is the most important pre-Columbian metropolis in the American continent, a living museum and the gateway to climb the Inca trail to the ruins of Machu Picchu.

Airport pick up is included from Cusco Airport. Most students fly into Lima then stay a evening then fly on to Cusco. We offer an Arrival package at an additional cost that includes flights / accommodation, please read our arrival notes for further details.

>> SCHOOL FACILITIES:

17 classrooms, bright indoor patio, a video room, auditorium, an entertainment room, a cafeteria and an interior plaza. Free wireless internet for students.

>> PROGRAMS CHOICES:

Standard: 4 Group lessons daily (20 lessons per week)
Private: 4 Private lessons daily (20 lessons per week)

Teachers are native speakers and many are University educated with years of teaching experience. The school offers seven levels of language skill, and the teaching method is based on the 4 language skills: listening, grammar, oral and written comprehension. No English should be used in class.

>> ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS:

Host Family: (private room) 3 meals daily.

>> EXAMPLES OF CULTURAL ACTIVITIES :

Enjoy trekking in the mountains, the Andes and Inca trail, Machu Picchu, Sacred Valley and other ruins, Cathedral, handicrafts, Inca history. A "must do" for all students is the opportunity to climb the Inca Trail to the ruins of Machu Picchu. This is an incredible experience and can be done in several ways, so when booking you may want to plan ahead and leave some extra time to do this.
