

Arabic in Fez, Morocco

Link: <http://www.languagesabroad.com/countries/fez.html>

>> WHAT WE LIKE:

Historic city & intellectual Capital, site of the largest mosque in North Africa and the most complex medina. Professional school housed in a large Moorish-style villa, 5 minutes walk from the city center - our most favourite Arabic program.

>> SCHOOL FACILITIES:

The school hosts a maximum of 150 international students, it shares its grounds with a well-established English school, thereby enabling interaction with young Moroccans. Other facilities include a small gym and TV / video area with Arabic films and satellite TV with stations from across the Arab World, inexpensive internet cafes nearby, 24-hour security, specialized Arab / Islamic library & enjoy Moroccan mint tea in the school snack bar.

NOTE: The school is closed on Friday's and Saturday's. , dress code when attending class, airport pick up is available from Fez airport at an additional charge.

>> PROGRAMS CHOICES:

Standard: 4 lessons daily (20 hours per week) Set length of 3 or 6 weeks.

NOTE: It is NOT possible to take both the MSA and CMA language courses at same time. Please also plan to arrive earlier or the day before your course begins. The course start dates are normally mid week, due to religious holidays, please consider this when making travel arrangements. The school is closed on Friday's and Saturday's.

>> ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS:

Host Family: (private or shared room) 2 meals daily.
School Residence: (private room) no meals.

>> EXAMPLES OF CULTURAL ACTIVITIES :

Lectures Moroccan or Arab culture, video showings of Arabic films and tours around Fez, including the historic old city, trips to the Roman ruins of Volubilis, picnics in Ifrane (a village in the Atlas Mountains), and a visit to a country "souk" market).
