>> WHAT WE LIKE:

Truly individual, interesting and safe city. Great night life, music & Salsa this place is a must visit - a 1950's film set! School is 10 minutes from the Old UNESCO City center.

>> SCHOOL FACILITIES:

8 Large & bright classrooms (some with AC), spacious social rooms, student kitchen, snack bar and a garden/patio where students can relax between or after classes. Classes normally start at 9.30am, students also have access to a video room at the hotel and internet access is available for $5 per half hour.

>> PROGRAMS CHOICES:

Holiday: 2 Lessons daily (10 lessons per week)
Standard: 4 Lessons daily (20 lessons per week)
Intensive: 6 Lessons daily (30 lessons per week)

Our teachers are native speakers and many are University educated with years of teaching experience. They will help enhance your speaking, listening, grammar and general comprehension skills. They will also use interactive techniques such as role-play, games and perhaps videos to support lesson content. Students are expected to bring with them pens, note books, pencils, any basic materials as they are very difficult and expensive to find in Cuba and the school will not provide them

>> ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS:

Hotel Residence: private or double rooms, 2 or 3 meals daily.

>> EXAMPLES OF CULTURAL ACTIVITIES :

Guided city tours in Havana Vieja & Center Havana including museum visit, market visits, Visit to "San Carlos de la Cabaña" Fortress with "Cañonazo" Ceremony and Che Guevara museum ($5.00), Guided trips to the numerous museums in Havana ($5.00), Salsa music at "Casa de la Música" or "Casa de la Amistad" ($5.00). Beaches of Playas del Este, ($5.00 each for a shared taxi in a group of 4).
