>> WHAT WE LIKE:

A very western style city with scenes from the world's oldest civilization. It is truly a city of many faces where ancient and modern co-exist.

>> SCHOOL FACILITIES:

2 school locations - excellent facilities, 20+ class rooms, computerlab, free e-mail, social rooms and use of campus grounds.

>> PROGRAMS CHOICES:

Standard: (15 lessons per week) private instruction.
More lessons can be added daily if requested, depending on the student's requirements and needs, both simplified and traditional characters are taught.

The schools teaching methods and curriculum cover all levels of language ability. Language texts are written especially with the non-native learner Chinese in mind, and are frequently updated.

>> EXAMPLES OF CULTURAL ACTIVITIES :

Our optional cultural and social activities could include: lectures, Chinese film showings, parties, sporting activities, excursions to historical sites and trips to attend cultural performances. Lectures, demonstrations and classes in specialized skills also may be arranged for interested students.

In the past, such classes have included Chinese painting, calligraphy, cooking, tea making, porcelain making, and paper cutting. In addition, the school encourages its students to participate in various international speech and debate competitions, allowing foreign students to demonstrate their Chinese language skills
